

CLINICAL PRIVILEGES IN PATHOLOGY

Name: _____
(please print)

DIVISION OF ANATOMIC PATHOLOGY

Privileges requested but not limited to:

- _____ Administration of the histopathology laboratory including medical direction, technical supervision, institution and monitoring quality control activities.
- _____ Gross and microscopic interpretation of surgical pathology specimens with subsequent published consultation reports.
- _____ Interpretation of frozen sections of surgical pathology specimens with attendant operating room consultation.
- _____ Administration of the cytopathology laboratory including medical direction, technical supervision, institution and monitoring of quality control activities.
- _____ Additional functions as defined by the College of American Pathologists guidelines.

DIVISION OF CLINICAL PATHOLOGY

Privileges requested but not limited to:

- _____ Direct administration of the clinical pathology laboratory including medical direction, technical supervision, institution and monitoring quality control activities with attendant clinical consultation.
- _____ Medically direct the subdivisions of:
 - a. Hematology and coagulation
 - b. Blood Bank and Immunohematology
 - c. Clinical chemistry (including the subdivisions of special chemistry, automated chemistry, endocrinology, radioimmunoassay, toxicology and electrophoresis)
 - d. Microbiology
 - e. Serology
- _____ Perform and interpret bone marrow aspiration and/or biopsy.
- _____ Interpret and register signed comments of special selected studies including electrophoretic and immunoelectrophoretic procedures, isoenzyme fractionations.

_____ Additional functions as defined by the College of American Pathologists guidelines.

Date

Signature of Applicant

Appointment Recommended Appointment Not Recommended Appointment Deferred

Date

Chairman, Executive Committee

Appointed

Disapproved

Deferred

Date

Chairman, Board of Directors

